

"Inspiration Point" a metapuzzle by Peter Washington The answer to the metapuzzle is a 20th-century novel.

ACROSS

1. Expense for some HS seniors looking for a head start in college
6. Jurist who's an icon for some feminists, familiarly
9. Copy
12. "Lend me a looking glass. If that her breath will ____ or stain the stone, Why, then she lives." -- King Lear (5, 3)
16. ____ Apso
17. Arias, for example
19. Southwest Airlines ticker symbol
20. Company headquartered in Delft, Netherlands (though its largest store is near Stockholm)
21. "He that is truly dedicate ____ Hath no self-love, nor he that loves himself Hath not essentially by circumstance The name of valour." -- Henry VI, Part 2 (5, 2)
22. 1942 John Steinbeck novel
25. Invalidate
26. Start of un año
27. Either of two contests held each October
28. Big name on big wine bottles
29. 2001 TV miniseries produced by Tom Hanks and Steven Spielberg
35. Japanese word meaning "change"
37. "Street Fighter" protagonist
38. Actresses Gardner and Gaudet
39. 2012 John Green novel made into a 2014 movie
47. ____ vult
49. Pleated petticoat border whose name sounds like a very childlike description of what it is
50. What Homer is mostly known for
51. 1996 David Foster Wallace novel
53. Hideout
54. Front desk request from an overfull hotel room
55. Rust, for one (in an archaic spelling that makes it look like a synonym for "bovine type animal")
56. Info on an airport screen
59. White wader
63. German industrial city
65. Business striving for inclusivity in hiring (abbr.)
67. ____ rage
69. Lacto-____ vegetarian
70. When repeated, a coastal town in New South Wales

72. Song on Pink Floyd's 1987 album "A Momentary Lapse of Reason"
77. Cuban jazz percussionist Pozo
79. What Joe Jackson was famously asked to say (in a Chicago Daily News headline, not by child in the courthouse as later misreported)
80. Agcy. headed by Dan Coats until August 2019
81. 1929 William Faulkner novel
84. Appropriately-named sprinter
85. Low digit
86. Fore's opposite
87. 1959 Philip K. Dick novel
94. Name of the farmer whose body an alien wore "like a suit" in "Men in Black"
99. Letters in a Craigslist post
100. Recurring phrase in "Jack Sprat"
101. "____ Here Gets Out Alive"
102. 1932 Aldous Huxley novel
107. Obnoxious kids
108. Old typesetting term
109. Letters indicating a strong data connection
110. "Take ____, lest by your heat you burn yourselves." -- Henry VI, Part II (5, 1)
111. Like small diamonds, often
112. West African nation
113. "Harry -- ____ a wizard."
114. Eds. mark them up
115. West Yorkshire city

DOWN

1. Worshipper's fixture
2. Hi-fi
3. Spotted youngsters
4. Author and priest McCaulley, a biblical twin, and ... probably some others?
5. Lobate, maybe
6. Q followers
7. Type of oolong tea now more often called Wuyi
8. She played Sarah in "The Big Chill"
9. Standoffish
10. The 14-down clue (and any of several other lines in that song), for example
11. Alter ego for 37-across
12. Surrounded by
13. When doubled, Mardi Gras song
14. "____, a needle pulling thread"
15. Make into leather
18. Used WhatsApp, say
23. Río de ____
24. Abraded
29. Loveliness, spelled in a not-so-lovely way
30. Place for furrows
31. Loathing
32. Exfil
33. .zip alternatives
34. Viper's warning
36. Stick on
39. It's about two miles from Harvard
40. China's leader, as his name would be spelled in the Wade-Giles system
41. Allergic rash, or a type of fungal rust (sorry ... this part of the grid is just terrible ...)
42. JFK's veep
43. Holder of a dimpled ball
44. ... nous sommes, vous êtes, ____ sont
45. Jot down
46. Skimpy suit
47. Some mirror hangers
48. Hazzard deputy
52. "You've got it all wrong!"
57. "By my ____, I was seeking for a fool when I found you." -- As You Like It (3, 2)
58. Travel accessory for a pampered pooch
60. Disorderly
61. "____ Almighty"
62. Singer Amos
64. Old smartphones, printers, monitors, etc.
66. Blues singer James
68. "And, gallant Warwick, do but answer this: What is the body when the head ____?" -- Henry VI, Part III (5, 1)
71. Place for DIY videos

73. Solo on screen
74. Muslim festival
75. Chemical precursor to a better-known explosive
76. "____ Colored Girls"
77. Golfer K.J.
78. Tiller
79. Prefix with gram or logical
81. Hashtag accompanying reminiscences posted on a certain day of the week
82. "____ that, but ..."
83. Something you bring to the table
88. Defunct video chat service with a silly-looking palindromic name
89. Some, vis-à-vis many
90. Mandible
91. Brief intro to a caveat
92. Type of jurisdiction under which U.S. v. One Solid Gold Object In The Form Of A Rooster, 186 F. Supp. 526 (D. Nev. 1960) was heard
93. Gators' rivals
95. Metaphysical English poet
96. Fudge, as numbers
97. Paid for entry of a sort
98. Much of a cymbalist's sheet music, probably
102. Club cousin
103. Sand-dancing Duran Duran protagonist
104. Director Lee
105. Saison d'Août
106. Driller's credential

